Sir:

On May 9, 2003, the Applicant filed an Amendment that responded to the Office action dated February 11, 2003. The Amendment placed all pending claims in condition for allowance, and requested an Ex parte Quayle action to permit Applicant to attend to the formality of surrendering the original letters patent and providing the Consent of Assignee Certificate.

The Applicant has now completed these formalities, so an Ex parte Quayle action is no longer necessary. However, the Applicant was unable to locate the original patent. The Applicant has enclosed a Consent of Assignee Certificate Under 37 CFR 3.73 signed by an officer of the company authorized to act on behalf of the assignee. The Applicant offers to surrender the original patent and has enclosed a declaration that the original patent is lost or

I, Kelly R. Warshany, hereby certify that this correspondence is being deposited with the US Postal Service as first class mail in an envelope addressed to Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, VA 22313-1450, on the date of my signature.

DECLARATION AS TO LOSS OF LETTERS PATENT (37 CFR 1.178)

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

I, Michael McGrew, hereby declare that U.S. Patent Number 5,992,247 granted to Edward Manestar on November 30, 1999, has been either lost or destroyed, that I have made a diligent search for said Patent in all places where the same would probably be found, if existing, and that I have not been able to find it.

I hereby declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
